Some curbs back, govt says banks, markets open for Eid

Doorstep delivery of vegetables, ration 'ghats' for groceries, 2.5 lakh sheep: Govt lists measures

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
New Delhi, August 11

WHILE THE CENTRE said it had taken a number of measures to bring back "normalcy" in Jammu and Kashmir (J&K) on the eve of Eid on Sunday, reports from the Valley said some curbs had been reimposed.

A Reuters report said a police van was seen driving around a part of Srinagar, announcing that restrictions had been imposed again and asking people to stay indoors. Police check-number of doctors and paramedical staff on duty. The identity cards of medical staffers are being treated as movement passes, it said, adding that all medicines are also available in sufficient quantity in all health institutions.

Flights are operating as per the schedule and air tickets too are being treated as movement passes, it said. Magistrates have been deployed at every critical place to act as facilitators for the convenience of general public.

A locked Jamia Masjid in Srinagar on Sunday points were also placed on some roads leading to the old quarter of the city, and some streets in central Srinagar.

The report quoted a senior state government official as saying that an assessment of the situation would be made after a video-conference with senior police and administration officials from all the districts in the Valley. "I do not think we will allow large gatherings," he was quoted as saying.

On Friday, after prohibitory orders were relaxed for the first time since the security lockdown, following the government's decision to revoke the state's special status and bifurcate it into two Union Territories, some incidents of stone-pelting were reported.

According to the Reuters report, J&K Director General of Police Dilbag Singh said 1,000-1,500 people were returning from praying at mosques on Friday when "some miscreants" started pelting stones at security officials. "It was a reaction to stone pelting by these miscreants that one or two rounds of pump action gun was fired," Singh told Reuters, adding that four to five men suffered injuries. Around 300 local leaders had been detained, and some of them had been taken out of Kashmir, he said.

Meanwhile, the home ministries said banks, ATMs and quite a few markets were kept open, "2.5 lakh sheep" were made available, and the district magistrates had made "elaborate arrangements" for Eid.

Mobile vans have been deployed for door-to-door delivery of vegetables, LPG cylinders, poultry and eggs, and "six mandis/markets" have been established in Srinagar city, it said.

Treasuries, banks and ATMs have been made functional, replenishment of cash in ATMs has been ensured on regular basis and people are withdrawing money from ATMs as and when required, it said, adding that salaries of all employees and wages of casual labourers too have been released in advance. Ration 'ghats' in every district have started functioning to supply groceries. Of the 3,697 ration 'ghats' in Kashmir division, 3,557 have been made operational to provide essentials to the public.

Special and elaborate arrangements have been made for the safe return of Hajis from Saudi Arabia, for which flights will commence on August 18. All deputy commissioners have nominated nodal officers to be stationed at the airport from August 18, to facilitate their return to their homes.

The government has stocked wheat to suffice for 65 days, rice for 55 days, mutton for 17 days, poultry for one month, kerosene for 35 days, LPG for one month, and diesel and petrol for 28 months, it said. All bakery, poultry and mutton shops were kept open on Sunday and long queues were seen outside these shops, it said, adding that traffic is plying smoothly in Srinagar city.

All health institutions at primary, secondary and tertiary level in Kashmir division are functioning fully with sufficient

No benefit to country, Kashmir from Art 370: Home minister Shah

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
Chennai, August 11

UNION HOME MINISTER Amit Shah said Sunday that he had "no confusion" in his mind about the removal of special status under Article 370 in Jammu and Kashmir, which was of "no benefit to the country... or for Kashmir".

Reiterating his argument in Parliament that the government's decision will put an end to terrorism in the state, and lead to development, Shah said: "As a legislator there was no confusion in my mind about the decision... I firmly believe there was no benefit to the country from it, or for Kashmir. It should have been removed much before. As Home Minister, I had no confusion on what will happen after Article 370."

Shah was speaking at an event to mark the release of the book "Listening, Learning & Leading..." on Vice President

M Venkaiah Naidu's two-year term in office.

Speaking at the event, Naidu said the abrogation of Article 370 was in "national interest". "It was the need of the hour, people of the country should stand with Jammu and Kashmir... We should all think in terms of national interest rather than party interest. This should not be treated as a political issue but as a national issue as Kashmir is an integral part of India," he said.

"Whatever problems are faced by the people of Kashmir, we have to stand by them and assuage their feelings and see to it that steps are taken to restore normalcy," Naidu said.

Union minister Prakash Javadekar, who was also part of the event, claimed that Kashmir has been peaceful after the government's decision. "Not even a single tear-gas shell has been fired," he said.

Jaitley stable, say AIIMS sources

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, August 11

FORMER FINANCE MINISTER Arun Jaitley, who is undergoing treatment at AIIMS here, continues to be stable, sources at the hospital said on Sunday.

On Saturday, after Vice-President Venkaiah Naidu visited the All India Institute of Medical Sciences (AIIMS) to enquire about Jaitley's health, and his office said the former minister is responding to treatment.

Jaitley was admitted to the AIIMS Intensive Care Unit on Friday morning after he complained of breathlessness and restlessness, but doctors on Friday said he is "haemodynamically stable".

DHFL seeks ₹15,000-cr lifeline

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Mumbai, August 11

TROUBLED MORTGAGE LENDER Dewan Housing Finance (DHFL) has sought an immediate funding of ₹15,000-crore from banks for on-lending to retail customers as well as to project developers, say sources.

Last week, the nearly-crippled company had submitted a draft resolution plan to lenders which are yet to be approved by them. "The company has asked for an additional funding of ₹15,000 crore. The money will be used to fund viable projects that are stuck due to lack of money," said one of the sources.

When contacted, a DHFL spokesperson said it did not have any comment to offer apart from what it has informed the stock exchanges last week on the draft resolution plan.

Under the draft resolution plan, the company has asked for funds from banks/NHB for restarting retail funding which was stopped after liquidity crisis hit it in the previous year.

According to sources, the decision on any additional or the quantum of funding will be taken only after due deliberations by lenders.

The beleaguered home financier, which has defaulted on multiple times on payment to bondholders since June, owes close to ₹90,000 crore to banks, the National Housing Bank and other creditors.

However, the company had said one of its debenture trustees, Catalyst Trusteeship Services, is in the process of seeking consent from the debenture holders to be a party to the ICA.

In a separate filing to the exchanges on August 8, the company said it might not be able to meet its financial obligations in near future.

"Given the ongoing discussions on the resolution plan with the lenders who have signed the ICA, we believe that our payment obligations falling due in the immediate future, may not be met as per their existing schedule," the company informed the exchanges.
